

Leave New Jersey's "Do Not Call List" intact. If I wanted to be bothered by telemarketers, I would not have added my phone number to the list. Just as in my choice of watching certain television programs or listening to certain radio stations, I had a choice in signing up for New Jersey's "Do Not Call" list.

I made my choice & I don't want the FCC imposing their views on me or on my State.